DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-35 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 1-24 of U. S. Patent No. 6,340,158, claims 1-25 of U. S. Patent No. 6,220,593, claims 1-41 of U. S. Patent No. 6,047,963, claims 1-15 of U. S. Patent No. 6,398,219 & claims 1-41 of U. S. Patent No. 6,139,013 since the claims, if allowed, would improperly extend the "right to exclude" already granted in the patent.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they set forth subject matters, which are obvious over each other and only differ in breath of terminology used. For example, the "Casino Bonus Game" of claims 1-35 of the application is an obvious variation in meaning of the "Pachinko Casino Game" (Pachinko Bonus Game) of the aforementioned patents because the Casino Bonus Game and the Pachinko Casino Game are disclosed as being the same game).

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure and are cited to show the state of art with respect to features of the claimed invention.
